

Haiti Card Project

Creative Stewardship

Using Her Talents

100% of all proceeds go to help children in Haiti.

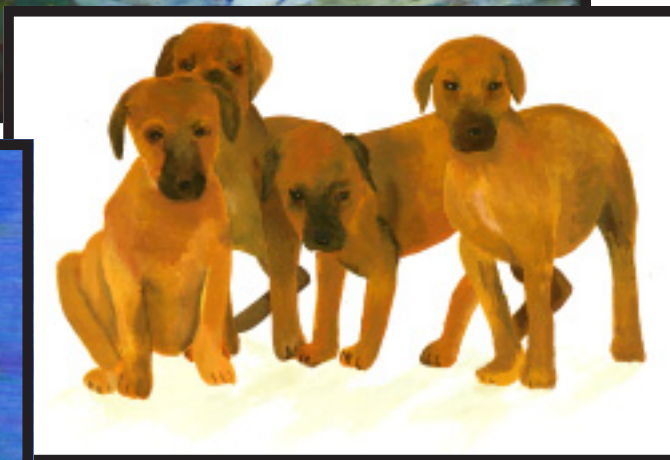

It started with a Children's Church challenge. With a gift of $5, each student was asked to grow their gifts and talents over the summer of 2004 to 'gain more for the Master'. All funds would be used to help children in Haiti.

Teresa Lacks, then 11 years old, used her artistic talent to create cards to sell. Her summer efforts multiplied her $5 to $240.

Teresa has continued to develop new cards and the proceeds are forwarded to help children in Haiti. These three drawings are Teresa's most recent productions.

With printing costs underwritten by her parents, all proceeds from the sale of these cards will go to help children in Haiti prepare for school this Fall. Funds will be used for school uniforms, books, shoes, supplies, etc.
